

Life

in the time of pandemic

How a coronavirus shook our world

Inside

Brian Hallenbeck looks at how the region faced a 'tidal wave that never came.' Page I4

Kimberly Drellich on how we are trying to adapt to a new way of learning. Page I6

Mike DiMauro considers high school athletes and the day the games stopped. Page I9

Erica Moser examines Connecticut's economy and asks: Will lost jobs come back? Page J1

Julia Bergman remembers some of the Connecticut lives lost to the deadly coronavirus. Page J2

Good for you, Connecticut.

We spread out. Stayed in. Masked up. And kept our COVID numbers down. But now, we need to get our flu shots. It's not just good for you — it's good for all of us, staying safe and healthy during this pandemic. Visit HartfordHealthCare.org/Flu.

Hartford
HealthCare